

Dynamic Communication. Transformative Results.

Patie B. Jansen

Patie B Jansen of Strategic Insight Solutions Ltd helps employees, managers, and leaders develop their interpersonal communication skills through interactive training programs, keynote presentations and individual coaching. Participants walk away from our communication training programs with more insight, strategies, and ultimately with more confidence to address difficult situations at work.

A highly experienced speaker and trainer, Patie combines step-by-step strategies with audience interactivity in her workshops, keynote presentations and trainings.

The result? An engaging – and effective – learning experience.
